

LACA Training for Tomorrow - a one day seminar

Wednesday 19th November 2008 - Brighton or Thursday 27th November 2008 - Sheffield

LACA, in association with the School Food Trust, have devised this one day seminar to bring together today's trainers to help develop the training schemes for tomorrow.

Speakers have been specially selected to both inform and consult with delegates on current and future training initiatives.

Delegates will have the opportunity to network with like-minded colleagues from around the country and gain a greater understanding of training provision available nationally and how this will join up to create a highly skilled and motivated workforce.

Aimed at all those involved in training school caterers and are responsible for the personal development of staff, including area and middle managers, training officers, training managers, assistant head teachers - this is a seminar not to be missed.

Choice of 2 venues:

Brighton Metropole Hotel - Wednesday 19th November 2008
Sheffield United Football Ground - Thursday 27th November 2008

Cost:

LACA Members: £30 + VAT
Non-LACA Members £50 + VAT

Click here to download the booking form

Seminar Programme:

0930	Coffee and registration
1000 - 1005	Welcome - Carol Harwood & Peter McGrath
	14-19 Diploma in Hospitality Heather Taylor People 1st
1005 - 1035	The 14 -19 Hospitality Diploma is new qualification aimed at young people in school from age 14 and will be available in some schools and colleges from September 2009. It offers a mix of classroom learning and practical work. Heather will discuss with the audience the impact this could have on trainers in school kitchens.
	New National Occupational Standards David Tournay, Evolution Partnership
1035 - 1105	David is working as a consultant with People 1st reviewing a "NEW MASS CATERING " Qualification for the Industry. During the session, he will run a consultation process to gain input as to how a qualification might work within the sector and more importantly to clearly identify the specific roles and responsibilities that staff in the School Meals sector have. The session will be used to feed directly into the development of new National Occupational Standards for the sector and into new NVQs/SVQs which reflect the specific needs of the school meals sector.

	Trainers Forum Pauline Joyce, Chartered Institute of Environmental Health
1105 - 1130	Trainers Forums are run by the CIEH around the regions. Pauline will explain how this valuable source of information can be accessed and the benefits of attending.
1130 - 1145	Coffee
	New Professional Qualifications Kathryn Benzine, Institute of Hospitality
1145 - 1215	Kathryn will enlighten the audience on the new professional qualifications available to our industry.
	FEAST Jenny Wright, School Food Trust
1215 - 1245	The School FEAST is a network of training centres and partnerships which will, over time, enable any member of the school food workforce to access excellent training to meet the needs of their customers. Jenny will up date the audience on FEAST activities.
	Q&A
1245 - 1315	Question and answer panel with Kathryn Benzine, Institute of Hospitality, Jenny Wright, School Food Trust and Heather Taylor People 1 st .
	How to make Training Fun Paul Hull, Cognitive Solutions
1315 - 1345	Paul is a motivational trainer and will use this session to inspire trainers to make "Training fun !"
1345	Lunch and depart

Click here to download the booking form

LACA Events Office, Progressive House, 2 Maidstone Road, Sidcup DA14 5HZ
T 0845 000 2500 F 0845 000 2501
Registered in England 3129594